Dear Mr. Grace:

Under separate cover I am sending to you Fielding Lucas, Jr. Atlas published in Philadelphia containing 54 maps in black and white. Will you be kind enough to put on a new leather spine, as old looking as you can, using the existing boards, pulling the unit together. It is in fine shape other than the missing spine.

I have your rate sheet which indicates a $62 charge for a 14 inch book requiring a new leather spine, keeping the original boards, and I am enclosing such a check. If there is an adjustment, please advise.

I have a number of other items to send you in due course.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Alan:

I enjoyed meeting you both at Armand Champa's home and talking about Devon. We enjoyed the area so much.

I am sending under separate cover the following items for your treatment:

- 1) The Parmelee Sale Catalog. Please put on a new spine of cloth or thin leather and retain the covers. Anchor the loose pages as you feel is best. Gold letter PARMELEE on the spine more or less like it now is.
- 2) The Diary of John Hull (Part of Transactions of the American Antiq. So). This needs a cloth spine. Keep the old boards. Please letter the spine so as to read the title when the book is on the shelf: DIARY
JOHN
HULL
- 3) Dr. Thomas Hall Manuscript Coin Inventory. This needs an old looking leather spine similar to the present color. Use the original boards with their chewed-up corners. The spine should be lettered DR. THOMAS HALL'S COIN RECORDS.
- 4) I send as a sample of work by Zahnsdorf done long ago for some of my writings. I would like you to bind another group like it in the same color, unless it becomes too expensive. Marbled end paper doesn't have to match. The inner cover gold decoration is unnecessary. I am sending my writings for the period 1961-1971. They are in proper order and should be bound exactly in that order. The spine lettering should be the same as the sample except for the dates which are (1961-1971).

If you think you ought to give me an estimate, please do, as your chart covers many other things.

I look forward to your work and I am very pleased with prior atlas work you did for me.

Dear Alan:

Under separate cover, I am sending a Day Book of F. Hewit which belongs to a friend. The owner wants to give it to a museum, and I volunteered to repair it. I was successful in impregnating formula into the outside covers but then I realized my limitations and felt that I should send it to you and have you do the rest (I will pay the bill). It can be done very crudely and all we want to accomplish is to make the spine look a little better and to put back the two gold lettered labels on the spine. The label marked Day Book goes on the top part of the exposed part of the spine and the label marked F. Hewit goes on the bottom part of the exposed section. If you can put some old pieces of leather or cloth, regardless of whether it matches or not, over those two exposed sections of the spine and mount the labels on that, the problem will be solved. Please attach the front cover of the book in the same manner as the back cover is attached.

I will be very appreciative of your doing this work promptly. I am getting a group of my books to send you.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
